Dear Ms. Phillips:

As you are aware, EQT Production Company ("EQT") has drilled the above-referenced coalbed methane gas wells on the H. F. Kiser Heirs 87.50 acre tract ("Subject Tract") either under a pooling order from the Virginia Gas and Oil Board ("Board") or as voluntary drilling unit. For these wells, we are listed as having conflicting claims. Range Resources - Pine Mountain, Inc. ("RRPM") is listed as claiming under a coal title, and you or your predecessors in title are listed as claiming under a gas title. The plats indicating the location of each well within the operating unit is enclosed for your reference.

EQT, as operator of the units, has placed or will place all royalty proceeds attributable to conflicting claims into an escrow or suspense account. In order to allow release of the royalty proceeds, RRPM hereby waives any claims to past or to future royalties attributable to your interests in these wells.

By copy of this letter, RRPM is requesting EQT to initiate distribution directly to you of all current royalties, as well as all future royalties, attributable to your interests in these wells. Please be advised that EQT may require that you demonstrate that you are the current owner of the gas estate. You should work directly with EQT on that issue.

Enclosed is a W-9 Form that you will need to complete by entering your Social Security Number in Part I and by signing and dating the Certification in Part II. A self-addressed, stamped envelope is enclosed for your convenience in returning the completed form to this office.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

Dear Mr. Counts:

As you are aware, EQT Production Company ("EQT") has drilled the above-referenced coalbed methane gas wells on the H. F. Kiser Heirs 87.50 acre tract ("Subject Tract") either under a pooling order from the Virginia Gas and Oil Board ("Board") or as voluntary drilling unit. For these wells, we are listed as having conflicting claims. Range Resources - Pine Mountain, Inc. ("RRPM") is listed as claiming under a coal title, and you or your predecessors in title are listed as claiming under a gas title. The plats indicating the location of each well within the operating unit is enclosed for your reference.

EQT, as operator of the units, has placed or will place all royalty proceeds attributable to conflicting claims into an escrow or suspense account. In order to allow release of the royalty proceeds, RRPM hereby waives any claims to past or to future royalties attributable to your interests in these wells.

By copy of this letter, RRPM is requesting EQT to initiate distribution directly to you of all current royalties, as well as all future royalties, attributable to your interests in these wells. Please be advised that EQT may require that you demonstrate that you are the current owner of the gas estate. You should work directly with EQT on that issue.

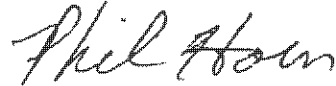

Enclosed is a W-9 Form that you will need to complete by entering your Social Security Number in Part I and by signing and dating the Certification in Part II. A self-addressed, stamped envelope is enclosed for your convenience in returning the completed form to this office.
