Hunting Safety Tips

Tell someone where you will be hunting.

Avoid outings alone. If you go alone, be extra careful and hunt in familiar areas.

Dress properly and be prepared for the worst possible conditions. Protect against hypothermia.

Check the weather forecast before going into the woods.

Identify your target before shooting.

Check hunting equipment before and after each outing, and maintain it properly.

Familiarize yourself with its operation before using it in the field.

Always wear enough blaze orange to be highly visible to other hunters.

Unload firearms and unstring conventional bows when not in use.

Wear hearing and eye protection.
